

Monarch High School
Advanced Placement Program
Contract

Parents and students are asked to read and sign the contract below and return it to the AP teacher.

_____ AP Human Geography _____
Student Name (PRINT) Course Name Grade level

AP Courses are taught at a college level. Instruction is fast-paced and requires many hours of work outside of the classroom. AP students should be dedicated to learning, able to prioritize their time, and willing to work hard. These courses are intended to prepare students for the AP test in May. Course descriptions can be found on the collegeboard website at: <http://apcentral.collegeboard.com/apc/public/courses/descriptions/index.html>

Student, Parent, and Teacher responsibilities:

Student: I understand that this is a college level course and that it requires hard work and dedication. I agree to organize and prioritize my time and complete all assignments on time. I understand that work will be required outside of the classroom. I will notify my teacher immediately should I fall behind in any assignments. If I am absent, I understand it is my responsibility to obtain any assignment either through contact with the teacher or by checking the course webpage. I agree to make-up any missed work in a timely manner. I understand there may be summer assignments required and that I may be tested on these assignments in the first weeks of school. I understand that I am required to take the AP test at the end of the year. I understand that I am responsible for following the class blog found at: <http://aphgmonarch.wordpress.com/>

Parent/Guardian: I agree to be familiar with the AP course requirements and policies. I understand my child will be required to complete many assignments outside of the classroom and I agree to contact my child’s teacher should I have any concerns about my child’s progress.

Teacher: I agree to provide a rigorous and challenging curriculum and to teach to the best of my ability. I agree to keep an up-to-date webpage and gradebook so that students and parents can be informed of the student’s progress. I agree to be available to address any concerns of the student or parent.

Exit Policy: Students may request to be withdrawn from an AP class within the first week of classes only. After this time, students must wait until the end of the current term.
